Images from Student Move-In Activities

Aug-21-2006

Move-in days are always an exciting time on the Eastern Illinois University campus. Dozens of volunteers from throughout campus pitch in to help make the process easier for students and their parents. Even President Lou Hencken gets behind the wheel of a golf cart to taxi people around campus, as seen in the first picture below.

Following are some images that capture part of the excitement of new students' first day on campus. Please click on a thumbnail image to see a larger version.
